April 2008

April 28 - National Day of Mourning for Workers Killed or Injured on the Job

On April 28, we gather with fellow workers, friends and family members to remember our brothers and sisters killed or injured on the job, and re-commit to making our workplaces safer for everyone. There will be events held around the province to commemorate the Day of Mourning on April 28 - The following are events we have been informed of as of April 1, 2008:

Halifax - The Nova Scotia Federation of Labour will host a ceremony at 11 am to 12 noon at Province House, Halifax, on the grounds by the plaque that was erected in 2002 beside the maple tree, also planted in 2002. Reception to be held afterward. If the weather is bad, the ceremony will be held in Province House. After the speakers, you are invited to lay a wreath on behalf of your organization. Contact the Federation office at 454.6735 or nsfl@ns.aliantzinc.ca

South Shore Labour Council is having a ceremony and candlelight vigil at 7 pm at the Desbrisay Museum on Jubilee Rd. in Bridgewater. For more information, contact Labour Council President Bud Johnson @ 902.627.1986 or budjohnson@ns.sympatico.ca (no wreath-laying).

Strait Area District Labour Council is having a ceremony at 6:30 pm at the CEP Union Hall in Port Hawkesbury (next to Dairy Queen) on 323 Reeves St. Guest speakers and a reception to follow. For more information, please call Labour Council President Tom McNamara @ the CEP Union Hall @ 902.625.1245 or tom_mcnamara@hotmail.com (no wreath-laying).
